Welcome to the World of

A.C.A.T. 1991-1992

The International School of Turin
Vicolo Tiziano 10
10024 Moncalieri To.

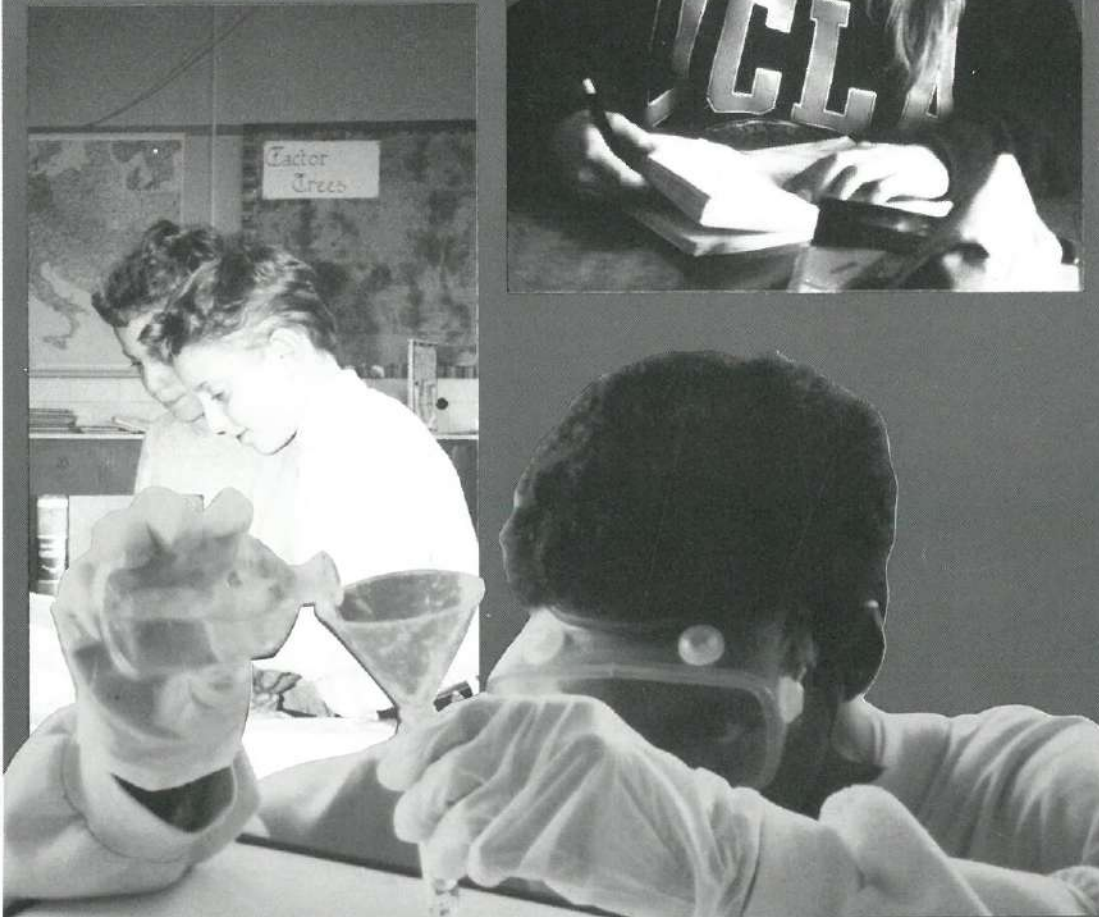

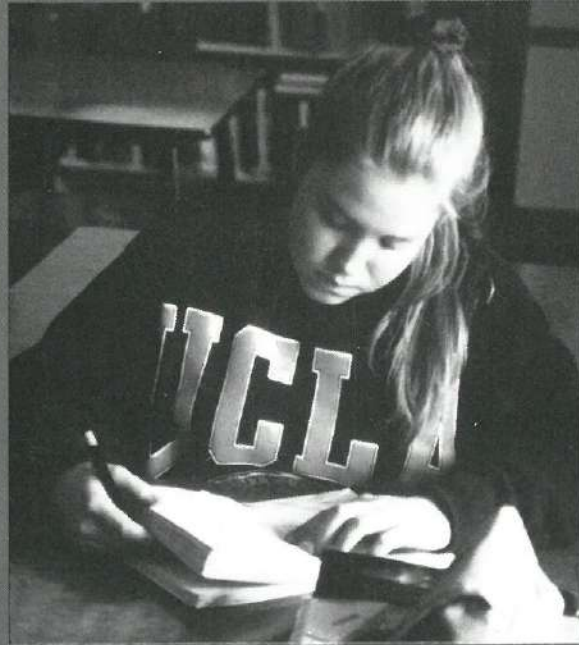

A cheerful smile, friendly eyes and encouraging words have always accompanied Bianca Kyler. She was not only ACAT's business manager for more than twenty years, she was also a symbol of our school. In any time, in any place Bianca could bring smiles to sad faces with her lively humour and friendly gestures.

In her twenty years at ACAT, Bianca Kyler has seen students go through the joys and turmoils of school and then later establish themselves in the real world outside their secure scholastic haven. She never forgot a face and would follow "her" students from the beginning to the end of their stay at ACAT and in many cases would follow them outside the boundaries of the school. Some of the people whose lives touched hers became her cherished friends. Her gleaming personality will always be remembered by those who had the great experience of knowing her.

For all your years of dedication to us, Bianca, we would like to reciprocate by dedicating this yearbook to you. Thank you for your time, your advice, your friendship and your smile. We all hope your past ACAT years will allow you to continue to share your gift of happiness with other people.

Best wishes, Bianca.

"Gonna find a way to cure this loneliness
Yeah, I'll find a way to cure the pain.
If I said that you're my friend
and our love would never end,
how long before I had your trust again.
I opened up the doors when it was cold outside, hopin' that you'd find your own way in, but how can I protect you or try not to neglect you,
when you won't take the love I have to give."

... Catch a falling star,
put it in your pocket,
and save it
for a rainy day ...

Another time it might have been so different
if only we could do it all again
but now it's just another fading memory
out of focus, though the outline still remains.
Far away, away, fading distant lights
leaving us all behind, lost in a changing world and you know that these are the days of our lives, remember;
like the story that we wish was never ending
we know sometime we must reach the final page
still we carry on just pretending
that there'll always be another day to go.
Another chance hello, another goodbye
and so many things we'll never see again
days of life that seemed so unimportant seem to matter and to count much later on.

Fading Lights - GENESIS

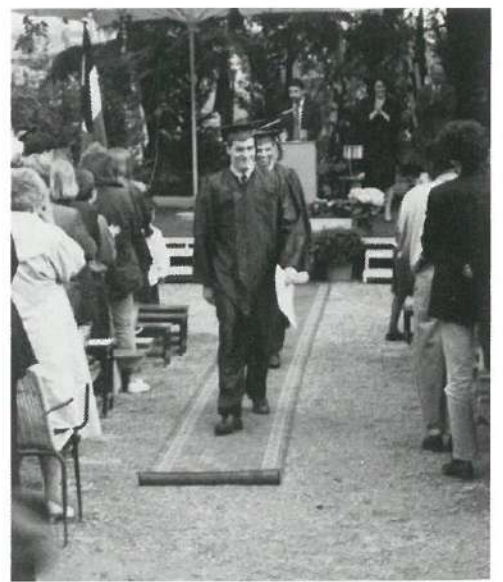

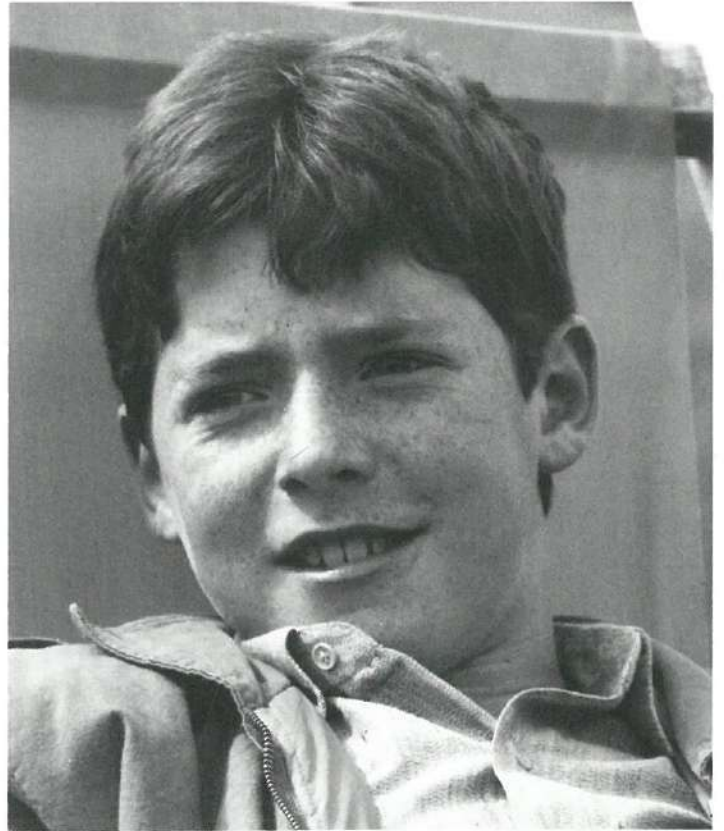

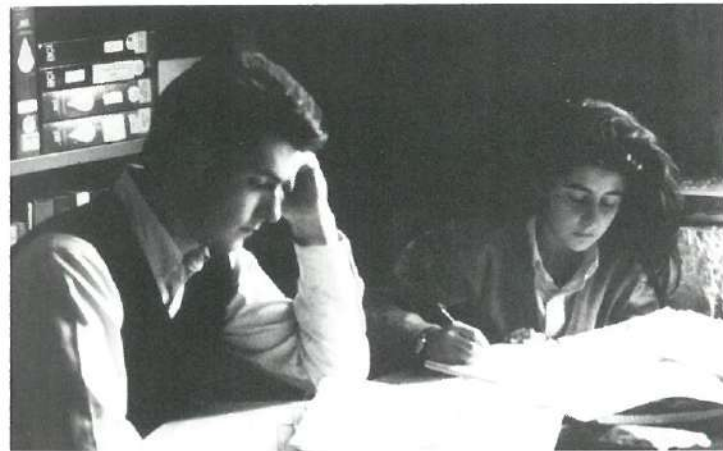

Claes Nordahl

"If you're going to do something, why not do it right?" Yet, one doesn't always live as one teaches. These have been four great years in Italy for me, and the friends I leave behind are testimony of this. They are too many to mention but you know who they are. I can only wish you all the best of luck and a sincere "alla prossima."

Paolo Saranga

Even though I have been here only two years, I have enjoyed myself thoroughly. A number of things have made these two years very special to me ... Corsica, "La Cabina", road signs, "Grappini," litres of beer, "sempre ubriachi," Simona (sopratutto), Luca, Claes, Ale, Edo, Fede, Bisso, Matteo, Christian ... New Year's Eve, and last but not least "Casa Savio." Thank you ... Everyone here will always have a special place in my heart.

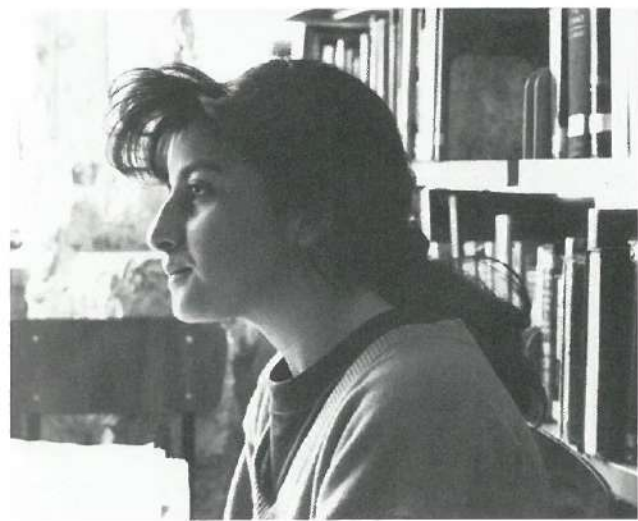

Luca Savio

Moro, Mocks, I.B., ("you won't make it.") (But we did!)

Simona Savio

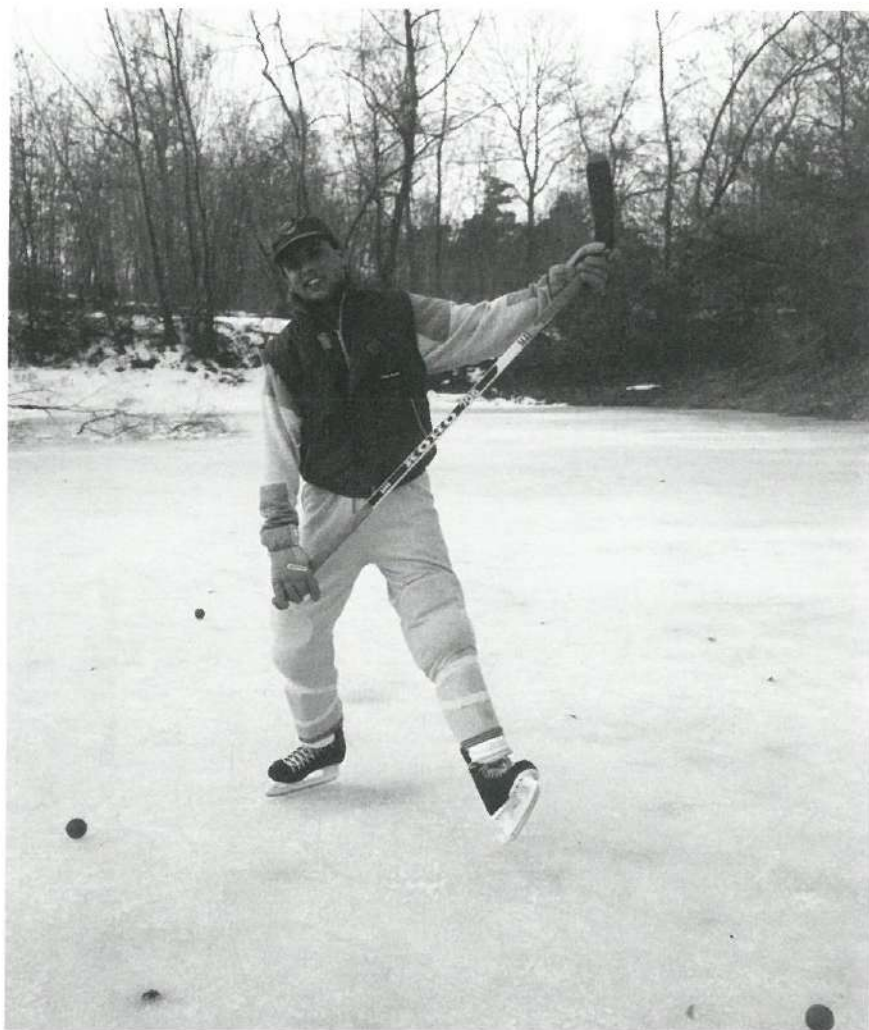

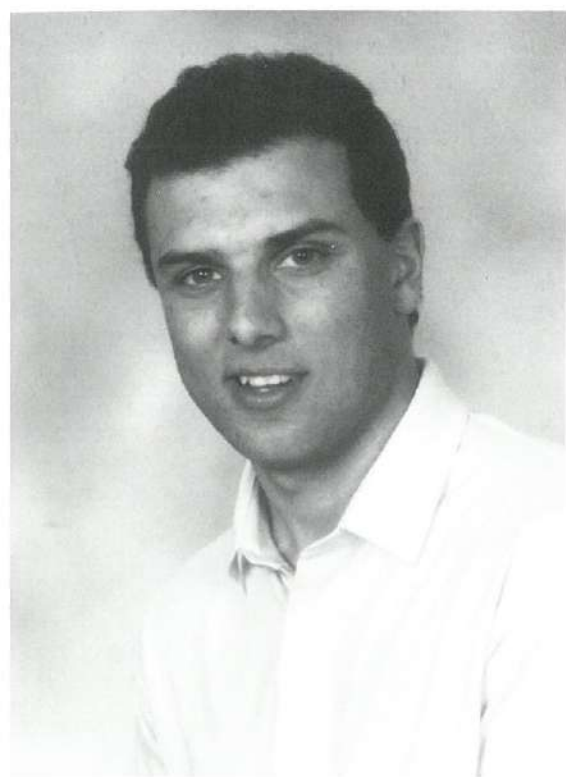

Fourteen years at ACAT gone by ... field trips, teachers, lots of friends, love, happiness, and fights, parties, Luca, Ema, Claes, Anna, Alè, Bisso, Edo, Fede ... Uffa! Sempre ubriachi! Paolo ... grazie. All the best goes to the people who have ever cared for me or have been my friends.

ACTIVITIES

International Day

Our 2nd annual CAS - sponsored salute to Columbus and ACAT's internationalism once again took place under rainy skies. Thanks to our friendly neighbors at Ville Roddolo, however, we salvaged the day in a frenetic but good-spirited relocation to the portico where 400 guests had a close-up look at the school's internationalism.

Representing Israel and the Taub family, a dripping Ann displays her booth.

Curious spectators crowd around the UK exhibit.

Proud Japanese students parade their colorful float.

On Horseback in Biella

Under the genial guidance of Mr. Aondio, ACATEERS discover the medieval charm of the Ricetto and Candelo.

Before the riding begins, Kristina gives her steed some last minute advice.

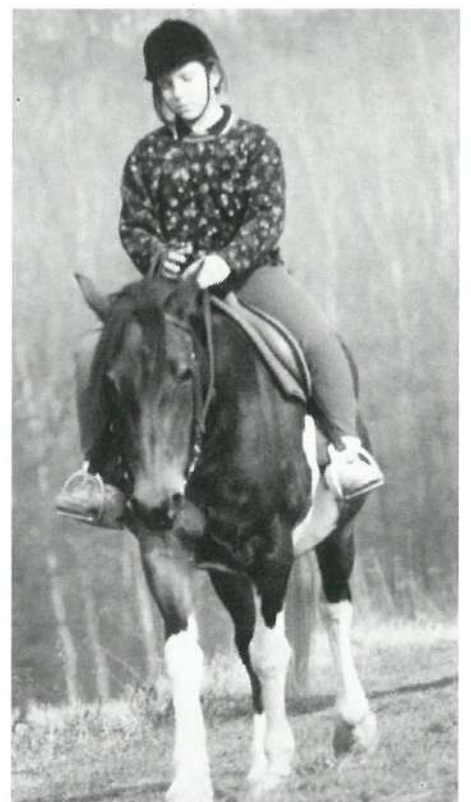

With calm anticipation, Sarah supervises her equipment check.

Plodding along, Matteo leads dizzy Melissa on her 50th round of the Carousel.

Perfectionist instructor Marco demonstrates the basics of horse care.

A real test of one's equestrian ability is to sleep (perchance to dream) as one ambles along.

Halloween:

One way to get all those hats and kids out of the garden is to "bunny-hop" them out.

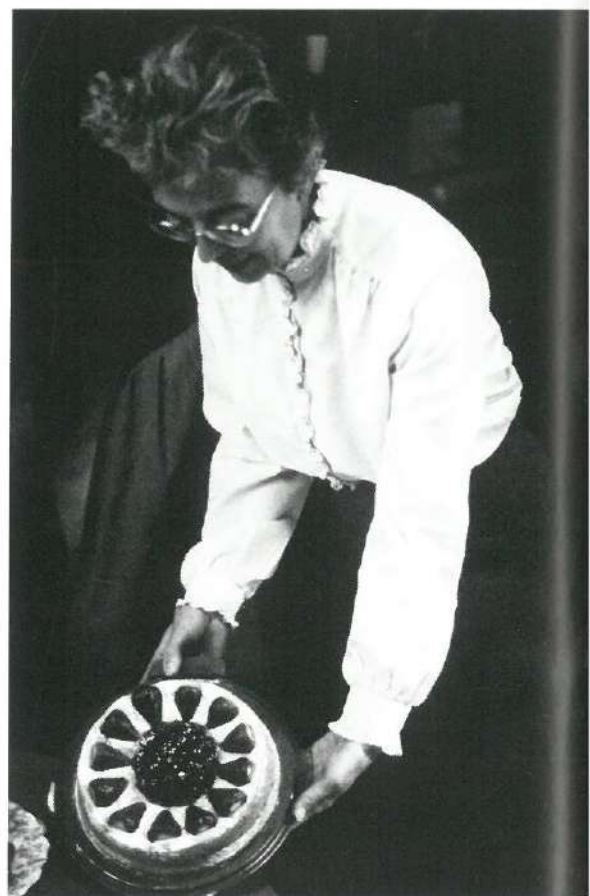

At the annual cake contest, PTA parents set out the mouth-watering entries for the judges' scrutiny.

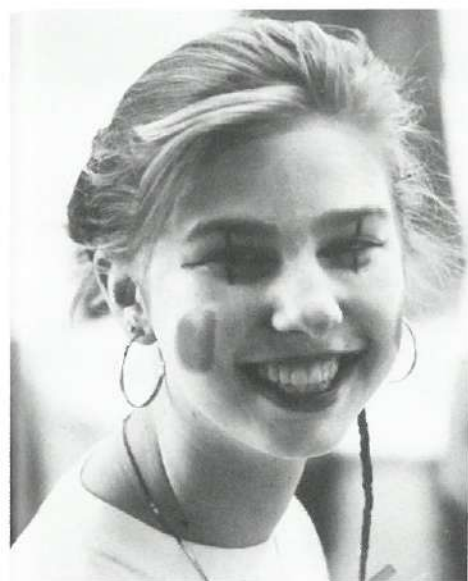

After thoughtful deliberation the judges make their difficult selections.

The Parent-Teachers Association

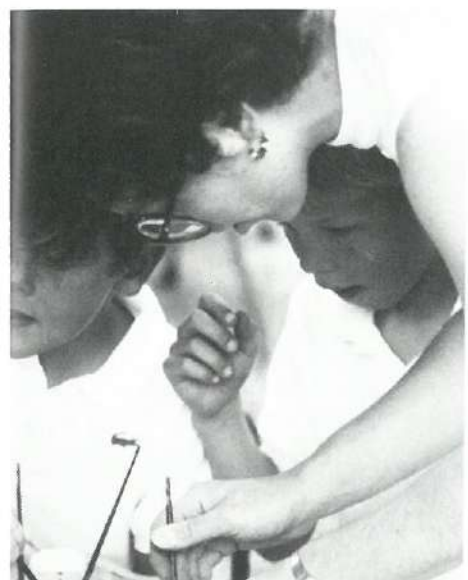

ACAT's PTA is that inspired group of parents and teachers who contribute their time and energy to creative projects, weekly bake sales, the annual Thanksgiving Dinner, a children's Christmas party, the spring Art Fair, Stracat, and much more. From their dedicated efforts, the spirit of the school community is enhanced and many of its needs met. We are grateful to them for making ACAT a better place for kids to grow in.

Ms. Lymberry proffers the "best-looking" cake.

Creative wax-dripping reveals the hidden talents of Mrs. Nikanpour and her apprentices.

A favorite gathering spot for this year's fair-goers was the "decorate and eat" your cupcake booth.

The Egg Day Games: A CAS class omelet of fun.

Before the much-awaited "contraption drop" hopeful engineers give their creations a final quality control.

Arndt and Edoardo pass the crucial first phase of the competition.

Abandoning their computers, even the secretaries are lured to the action.

Game sponsor, Mr. Leiser passes judgment on an egg's survival.

Winners!

With all eyes riveted on the high drop, it's easy to pick a winner.

From his lofty launch pad, Mr. Mores releases a prize-winning entry.

Amidst her admiring fans, Francesca shows how an egg is caught.

It takes concentration, agility, and webbed hands to snap up the elusive flying egg.

With a grimace Yosuke makes a close grab.

With proof in hand, Kristina gloats momentarily over her success.

Under the aegis of the Great Chicken (Brian) this year's Egg Day games came to a smashing close.

STRACAT: Flying Reeboks, succulent cherries and strolling, friendly chats contribute to another PTA triumph.

Vanessa hopes that having more numbers will give her a better chance to win.

Under threatening skies, Mrs. Nordahl gladly accepts last-minute entries.

Mr. Piovano proudly pins a winning number on Joseph who proceeds to take 1st place.

Mr. Selby acknowledges the invaluable help of the teacher assistants, Stacey, Giuhia, Chris, Megan, and Helen.

Concluding an event-filled year, eager fourth graders look forward to more adventures in learning as fifth graders.

Restive fifth graders await their official promotion to the middle school.

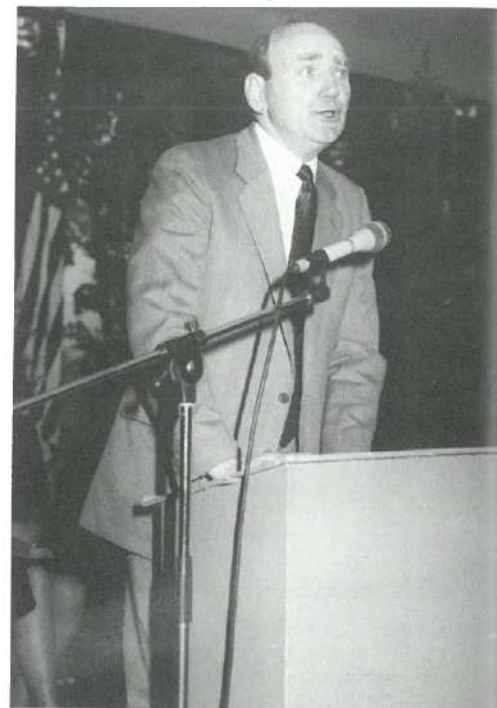

An all-elementary chorus gathers to end the year with a song.

Graduation '92: A moment of glory for ACAT's first I.B. class.

Headmaster George Selby opens the ceremony with congratulatory words to the seniors.

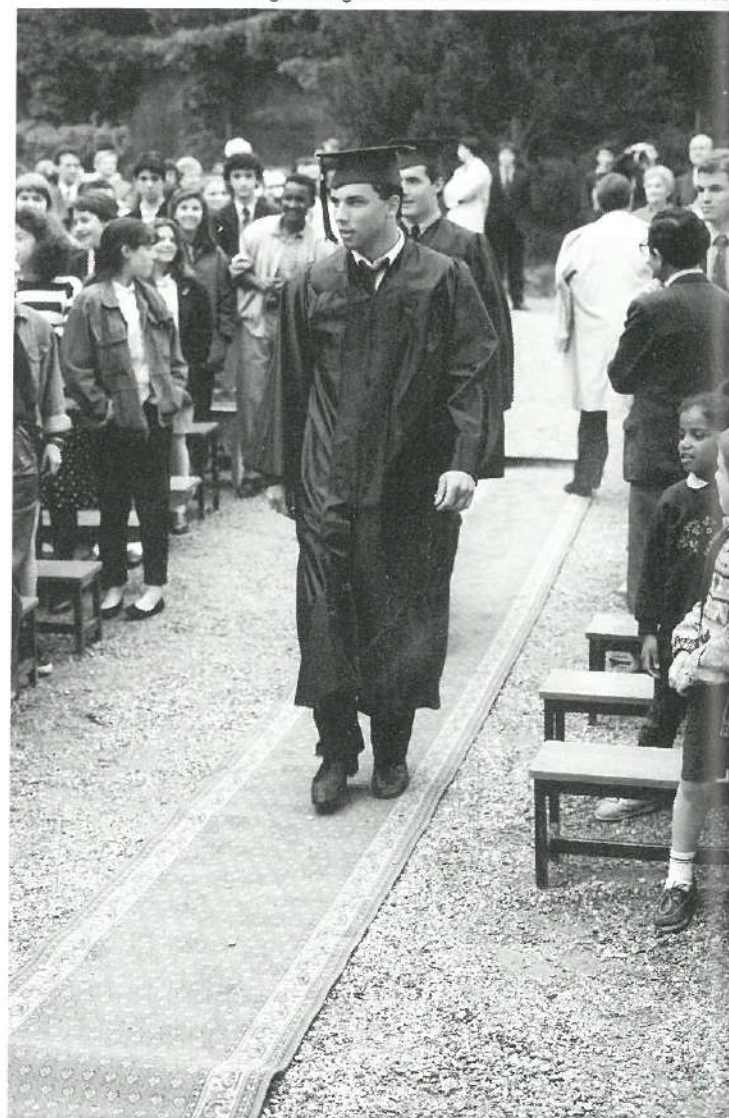

In an inspired speech British Consul Mr. Price challenges the graduates to face their future with conviction.

High honor student Joseph Piovano accepts his certificate from Mr. Selby.

The audience - those who made it all possible - sit back and enjoy the results of their investments.

With mixed emotions the seniors assume their positions.

With one collective thought in mind anxious seniors await the magic moment of the evening.

The versatile Thieneman sisters illuminate the program with their brilliant singing.

Mr. Selby congratulates this year's ECIS award recipient, Kristina Nordahl.

Class speaker Emanuela Marinelli shares warm memories with her classmates.

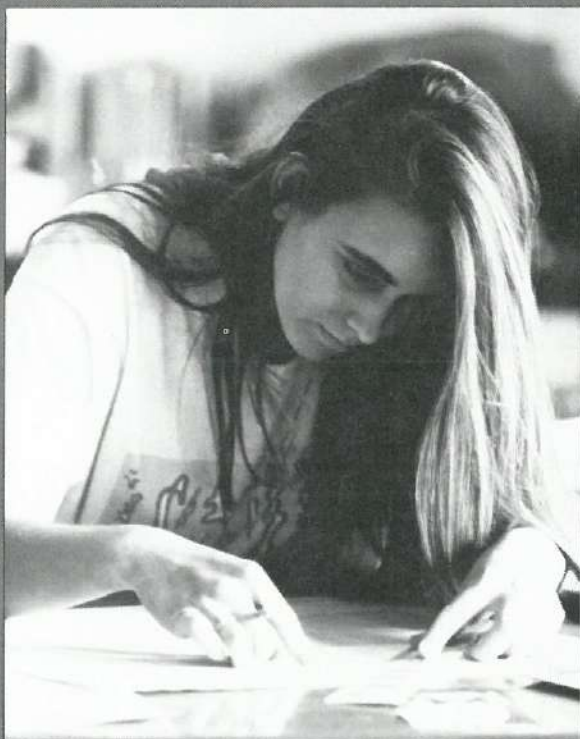

Valedictorian Claes Nordahl describes the critical phases of the class' I.B. progress.

Board President Margaret Ginatta awards Simona her hard-earned diploma.

Graduation - a peak moment in life - finds father and son congratulating each other.

UN GRANDE IMPEGNO MERITA UN GRANDE AVVENIRE

Grande Avvenire con Lode è la prima polizza che premia concretamente il suo impegno nello studio.

Scegli per tuo figlio la prima forma di investimento che, oltre a garantirti un capitale sicuro nel momento delle scelte importanti, gli offre una sorprendente opportunità collegata al profitto negli studi: infatti, in base ai voti della maturità, il capitale può aumentare fino al 50%.

Oggi, con un piccolo impegno, puoi fare molto per il suo grande avvenire.

Parlane con l'Agente Toro.

Saprà consigliarti, fra questa

ed altre polizze vita,

quella più indicata per la tua famiglia.
